

The Conway Family Part 4 – The Tool Maker

The next child of George and Savina is Bertha. The March 4, 1938 issue of the Amherstburg Echo mentions a party held for Bertha and says “A very gala affair was staged on Tuesday evening, March 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Conway, celebrating the 18th birthday of their daughter, Bertha. A host of presents was received by Miss Conway from her guests among whom was Miss Webb of Detroit. George McCurdy ran off with a very attractive door prize. Lunch was served at midnight after which followed a jam session by the whole house. Throughout the evening a ‘Happy Birthday’ rang out. Climax was reached singing ‘No Place Like Home.’”

The next child of George and Pearl is Winifred who married William Hogan and had a son named Michael E. Hogan. Michael married Mary L. Galvin on June 16, 1925 in Detroit. Mary was the daughter of John F. Galvin and Della McColl. At the time, Michael was a Tool Maker and Mary was a Bookkeeper. Winifred’s brother Lloyd, according to his birth record, was born on March 20, 1896 but there are no further records for him.

What we publish is not a complete history of any family and is based on the documents that are available. We welcome photos and information to fill in the gaps. See you next week for part 5.
