December 2023

Remembrance Day

On Saturday, November 11th, Amherstburg Freedom Museum Vice President Barbara Porter had the privilege of presenting a wreath in honour of Black Canadian veterans at the Remembrance Day Ceremony in Windsor. We look forward to presenting a wreath again next year.

Bus Trip to Frankenmuth!

On Sunday, November 19th we hosted a day trip to Frankenmuth, Michigan. Stops included Bronners' Christmas Store, Frankenmuth Bavarian Inn, Great Lakes Shopping Outlet and Meijer. Our fundraising chair Barbara Porter commented "We got so lucky with good weather and great people. It was a really good day and guests were excited about our upcoming bus trip to Shipshewana in June." Stay tuned for details! Additional thanks to our fundraising committee for organizing this trip!

Thank you Charitable Gaming Windsor & Paradise Gaming Centre

Charitable Gaming.

Community Good.

Amherstburg Freedom Museum would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to Charitable Gaming Windsor and Paradise Gaming Centre for their continued support. Throughout the years, they have helped us keep the Museum open and running, and allowed for us to continue to offer programming that shares the significant history of Freedom Seekers and Black settlers in this region. Thank you! For more information and how Charitable Gaming supports non-profits and local communities across Ontario, please go to charitablegaming.ca

Attention Shoppers!

Attention Shoppers! The holidays are just around the corner and we've added new items to our giftshop! We've added art cards from local artist Dennis K. Smith and new books, including We Remember The Black Battalion written by Serena Virk and Illustrated by Arnab Das, and poetry and writings titled By Grace We Live by local author Edward Milo Johnson. We also have a selection of other books for kids and adults, t-shirts, mugs and ornaments. Perfect gifts for the holiday! You can visit our gift shop in person or online at <https://ow.ly/wFwr50Q9AbC>

..... Happy Shopping!
